Baring All for a Good Cause

(1) Er Shun and Ji Li are two giant panda bears destined to make the trip from China to Canada.

(2) The pair will live in Toronto for five years and then in Calgary for five years.

(3) The giant panda is an endangered species that is unique to China.

(4) To the Chinese, it is more than just a cute and cuddly animal.

(5) It is a powerful symbol.

(6) If China agrees to loan a panda bear to another country, it's a sure sign of warm diplomatic relations.

(7) In this case, the offer came during a recent four-day visit to China by Prime Minister Stephen Harper.

(8) The Calgary and Toronto zoos will have to pay a $1-million-a-year "lending fee" to the Chinese government as part of the deal, The Vancouver Sun reported.

(9) The Chinese will put that money towards conserving panda habitats in China.

(10) The hope is that each zoo will more than make up for the $5-million it spends through increased sales of tickets and merchandise.
